USD Student Body President To Attend Workshop

Dorothy Florence, first woman and first minority President of the Associated Student Body of the University of San Diego, has been awarded a full tuition scholarship to a workshop at St. Mary's College, San Francisco, from August 13-18. The workshop sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Inc., is titled Youth, Crime and the Police.

Ms. Florence has been nominated by Dr. Jacob Cunningham for membership on the Regional Board of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, student membership, for a one year term. Dr. Cunningham is Executive Director of the San Diego region.

Ms. Florence is a Senior at USD and a Political Science-History major. She has participated locally in workshops with the San Diego Police Department in bettering relations between minority groups and the police. Following her graduation from USD, she plans to study law.
